Fast, Flexible Closing and Recording Solutions!

With FirstClose, you have the ability to close loans anywhere in the United States at the date, time, and location your borrower desires. No longer will your borrowers be at the mercy of a title company with their set standard hours. Customer service is our first priority and we go to great lengths to make closings easy, convenient, and hassle free.

Recording Services

FirstClose offers nationwide recording services with the ability to record documents in all 3,700+ jurisdictions. Our national recording providers' goals are to reduce the time required for recording via centralized processing. Faster recording time, supported by updated, jurisdictional knowledge, manages lien position and mitigates risk. No matter what your recording needs, we believe that documents, data and error management can't be addressed with a single solution. That's why we deliver customized recording solutions that are a seamless blend of data management, document management and document error management, all of which add up to total file access throughout the recording process. It's our top priority to get your documents off to the appropriate jurisdictions error-free and with the correct fees. We track your documents from start to finish, 24/7, through our secure, web-based system, enabling you to rest easy knowing that your recording needs are handled accurately and professionally.
